FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Karen Templeton Joins Exeter 1031 Exchange Services, LLC

Exeter 1031 Expands its Northwest Territory

May 5, 2017--San Diego, California--Exeter 1031 Exchange Services, LLC hires Karen Templeton as Business Development Officer. Ms. Templeton will expand the company's Northwest Regional Offices located in Bend, Oregon and Seattle, Washington. She is responsible for sales, marketing and client relationship management for the entire Pacific Northwest Region, including Washington, Oregon, Northern California, and Idaho.

Ms. Templeton grew up in the Exchange industry. Her family has owned and operated several Real Estate businesses. She was taught early on about 1031 Exchanges directly from her father, who owned and operated a Qualified Intermediary service company. The family was also involved in property management, Real Estate Securities, and real estate services.

She has an extensive background of professional experience working with escrow officers, settlement agents, real estate agents, closing attorneys, and accountants in the administration of clients' 1031 Exchange transactions. She has been with several financial and investment firms specializing in replacement property options for clients performing 1031 Exchanges.

She is involved in the community as a member and participant of several professional associations, including the American Escrow Association (AEA), Central Valley Association of Realtors (CVAR), National Association of Realtors (NAR), and Nor-Cal Escrow Association (Norcal).
