If the terms of the installment sale, promissory note, or payment schedule change, I will promptly inform the Franchise Tax Board. I understand that the Franchise Tax Board may review relevant escrow documents to ensure withholding compliance. I also understand that completing and signing this form will subject me to withholding penalties if I do not withhold on the principal portion of each installment payment and do not send the withholding along with Form 593 to the Franchise Tax Board by the due date, or if I do not send one copy of Form 593 to the seller by the due date.

Buyer: If you sign this agreement, make a copy of this form. Make sure you copy both sides so you will have the instructions for withholding on subsequent payments. Give the original along with copies of the promissory note and seller's certified Form 593 to your real estate escrow person who should mail them in to the Franchise Tax Board. Your real estate escrow person will withhold on the first installment payment. You must withhold on all subsequent installment payments (including payoff or balloon payments). Do not complete this form unless you are willing to either withhold 3 1/3% or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding percentage, as specified by the seller on Form 593, for each installment payment. Complete Form 593, and mail the documents and payment to the FTB for the principal portion of each installment payment.

This agreement is between the buyer and the Franchise Tax Board. Neither the seller nor the buyer may modify the terms of the agreement.

If you choose not to sign this agreement, instruct your real estate escrow person to withhold either the full 3 1/3% of the total sales price or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding amount certified by the seller on Form 593. You will not be required to withhold on subsequent installment payments.

Real Estate Escrow Person: If this form is completed and signed, withhold only on the first installment payment in escrow. Make a copy of this form for your records. Attach the original Form 593-I, a copy of the promissory note, and seller's certified Form 593, and send to the Franchise Tax Board with the withholding payment.

Real Estate Withholding Installment Sale Agreement

What's New

Registered Domestic Partners – For purposes of California Income tax, references to a spouse, a husband, or a wife also refer to a Registered Domestic Partner (RDP) unless otherwise specified. For more information on RDPs, get FTB Pub. 737, Tax Information for Registered Domestic Partners.

Purpose

When California real estate is sold on an installment basis, the buyer must withhold either 3 1/3% of the total sales price or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding amount from Form 593, Real Estate Withholding Tax Statement, line 5, which is certified by the seller. However, as part of an installment agreement, the seller can ask the buyer to withhold on the principal portion of each installment payment rather than withholding the full amount at the time escrow closes. If the seller chooses this method, the buyer must agree either to withhold 3 1/3% or the installment withholding percentage specified by the seller in the seller's section on Form 593-I, on the principal portion of each installment payment. If you are the buyer and plan to withhold on the principal portion of each installment payment, complete Form 593-I, and have your real estate escrow person send the completed Form 593-I, a copy of the promissory note, and seller's certified Form 593 to the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) with the withholding on the first installment payment. If you do not complete Form 593-I and send it to us, you must withhold either the full 3 1/3% of the total sales price or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding amount on Form 593, line 5, that is certified by the seller.

Do not complete this form if you are the buyer and you do not plan to withhold on the principal portion of each installment payment. Instruct your real estate escrow person to withhold either the full 3 1/3% of the total sales price or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding amount on Form 593, line 5, that is certified by the seller. You will not have a withholding requirement on subsequent installment payments.

Buyer Instructions

Complete all four parts of Form 593-I.

Part I – Buyer's Information

Enter your name as it is shown on the escrow instructions. Each buyer agreeing to withhold on individual payments instead of withholding the full amount at the time of sale must complete a separate Form 593-I. However, if you are purchasing the property with your spouse/RDP and both of you will be on the promissory note, then include both of your names, social security numbers or individual taxpayer identification numbers, and signatures on one form. The buyer's taxpayer identification number (social security number or individual taxpayer identification number if an individual) is required for the agreement to be valid.

Part II – Seller's Information

Enter the seller's name as it is shown on the escrow instructions. Use a separate Form 593-I for each seller included on the promissory note. However, if the sellers are spouses /RDPs and both of them will be on the promissory note, then include both of their names and social security numbers or individual taxpayer identification numbers on one form. The seller's taxpayer identification number (social security number or individual taxpayer identification number if an individual) is required for the agreement to be valid. If the seller is electing the Optional Gain on Sale withholding amount, ask the seller to provide you the installment withholding percentage that the seller calculated in the instructions for the Form 593. Include this installment withholding percentage in the appropriate box and use this percentage as part of the calculation for withholding on the principal portion of each installment payment.

Part III – Installment Agreement

Attach a copy of the signed promissory note to Form 593-I (showing the installment payment required) and seller's signed certification of Form 593 (if seller elected this method), or this agreement will not be valid.

Part IV – Buyer's Agreement to Withhold

By signing this agreement, you agree to:

- Authorize the real estate escrow person to withhold only on the first installment payment.
- Withhold 3 1/3% or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding percentage, as specified by the seller on Form 593, on the principal portion of all subsequent installment payments.
- Give one copy of Form 593 to the seller by the 20th day of the month following the month of the installment payments.
- Send each withholding payment along with the completed Form 593 (you need not obtain seller's signature on each subsequent and completed Form 593) to the FTB by the 20th day of the month following the month of the installment payment (see information below on interest and penalties).
- Promptly inform the FTB if the terms of the installment sale, promissory note, or payment schedule change.

If you sign this agreement, make a copy of this form. Make sure you copy both sides so you will have the instructions for withholding on subsequent payments. Give the original, with a copy of the promissory note, and a completed Form 593, to your real estate escrow person. When you make subsequent installment payments, withhold 3 1/3% or Optional Gain on Sale withholding percentage, specified by the seller on Form 593, on the principal portion of each installment payment. You must complete Form 593 for each withholding payment. However, you do not need to obtain the seller's signature on each subsequent Form 593. When you send the withholding on the final installment payment, write "Final Installment Payment" on the bottom of Form 593. You can get Form 593 by:

Real Estate Escrow Person Instructions

If the buyer has agreed to withhold on the principal portion of each installment payment instead of withholding on the full amount at the time of transfer, withhold either 3 1/3% or the Optional Gain on Sale withholding percentage, as specified by the seller on Form 593, of the first installment payment. Make a copy of this form for your records. Send the completed Form 593-I, a copy of the promissory note, and the seller's certified Form 593 with the required withholding amount on the first installment payment. Refer to the Form 593 instructions for more information.

Interest and Penalties

Interest will be assessed on late withholding payments and is computed from the due date to the date paid. If the real estate escrow person does not notify the buyer of the withholding requirements in writing, the penalty is the greater of $500 or 10% of the required withholding. If the buyer (after notification) or other withholding agent does not withhold, the penalty is the greater of $500 or 10% of the required withholding. If the buyer or other withholding agent does not furnish complete and correct copies of Form 593 to the seller by the due date, the penalty is $50 per Form 593. If the failure is due to an intentional disregard of the requirement, the penalty is the greater of $100 or 10% of the required withholding. If the buyer or other withholding agent does not furnish complete and correct copies of Form 593 to the FTB by the due date but does file them within 30 days of the due date, the penalty is $15 per Form 593. If Form 593 is filed more than 30 days after the due date, the penalty is $50 per Form 593. If the failure is due to an intentional disregard of the requirement, the penalty is the greater of $100 or 10% of the required withholding.
